

and Reznik, leaving Hart with the win, ahead of Feber and Vrecka in the final scoreboard. Adámek took ROK CZ timed practice ahead of Klobás and Midrlou. First heat went to Petr Cemper ahead of Klobás and Marek Hronovský. The second went to Adámek, with Klobás taking 2nd again. In the last heat, Klobás suffered technical problems from the lead. In the final scoreboard Adámek took the win, with Nemeček 2nd and Cemper 3rd. KZ2 is traditionally the class showing the most exciting racing of the weekend. On starting grid, Czech championship regulars Janouš, Hájek, Panáčková, who also race in international events. Time practice went to the Hájek, faster than Vmmotor racing team Adam Janouš, David Belina, Lucie Panáčková. In the first heat, Janouš and Hájek fought their hardest for the win finishing only 0"2 apart, with Belina 3rd. Sunday's rain affected the race, yet Janouš proved unmatched in heat 2 and 3, winning by a considerable margin. Janouš took also the win in the final scoreboard, ahead of Hájek and Belina. Vmmotor racing team driver Erik Písacka finished 4th.

Round 3 saw clear blue sky, with temperature over 30 degrees, and warm track. In Bambini, among the favourites were Korený, Javurek and Filip. Time practice went to Javurek. The final fight was between him and Korený, with Jan Filip having to settle for 3rd. Javurek missed one heats, which meant that in the final scoreboard Korený won ahead of Javurek and Novotý. In Kadet, the big fight was between Bezel, who took pole, and rookie David Klar, with Martin Matiaš taking 3rd. But it all went perfect for Pavel Srdínko, who took three heat wins and displaced Bezel from the champion-

PERSONALISE YOUR TEAM
NO MATTER THE NUMBER

MIR

ALL ITALIAN STYLE AND TECHNOLOGY

MIR Showroom - Via Newton 17

MIR Factory - Via Righi 20

Zona Ind.le B9 Pratacci 52100 Arezzo

Tel. +39 0575 984210 r.a.

Fax +39 0575 382975

www.mirracceline.com

mir@mirraceline.com

